Thorne Mission and History:

Thorne Nature Experience, formerly the Thorne Ecological Institute, is a non-profit organization that is committed to building Earth stewardship by connecting youth to nature through joyful, hands-on, place-based environmental education experiences. Thorne believes in discovery, exploration, and connection to the natural world. Founded in 1954, Thorne has a rich history and has reached more than 200,000 children and adults through its three programs: In-School Programs, Summer Camp Programs, and the BVSD 4th Grade Field Trip Program.

After-School Program Description:

In the spring of 2012, Thorne launched a new After School nature program with the goal of connecting students to the natural areas in their own backyards and schoolyards. The program has now expanded to include nine schools in two districts. The curriculum focuses on helping students to develop the skills of a naturalist and then use those skills to answer questions about the living things in their schoolyard, their neighborhood, and community around their school. Through exploration, mapping, sketching, plant and animal identification, and the use of nature journals, students will investigate and answer questions about their local ecosystem. These programs currently serve Pioneer, Ryan, and Sanchez Elementary in Lafayette; Rocky Mountain, North Ridge, and Timberline Elementary in Longmont; Columbine and University Hill Elementary in Boulder; and Emerald Elementary in Broomfield.
