

Job Title: After School Teaching Volunteer
Reports to: Lead Teacher
Volunteer Coordinator, Sarah Grove, Sarah@thornenature.org
Job Status: Part time, Volunteer or Internship

Job Purpose: Thorne Nature Experience is seeking dedicated volunteers and interns who will support the Thorne After School Program. The goal of the Thorne's After School program is to connect students to the natural areas in their own backyards and schoolyards. The program has now expanded to include nine schools in two districts. The curriculum focuses on helping students to develop the skills of a naturalist and then use those skills to answer questions about the living things in their schoolyard, their neighborhood, and community around their school. Through exploration, mapping, sketching, plant and animal identification, and the use of nature journals, students will investigate and answer questions about their local ecosystem.
